ABOUT

Mates, my long-time readers may have caught by now that I am an enthusiast for the outdoors.
But this trip, I could have done it with your company.
Through a series of unfortunate events (mentioned in another post), I lost my map. Here I am in the wilderness with a compass but no map to reference!
I was up a gum tree (in trouble)! I have never felt so isolated, so insignificant, so alone for someone who usually loves being alone. This was a real experience!

Suddenly, a glorious sound echoed
through the air: the sound of a mother
family. A kind family. But as I squad. I was ate the last bag of crisps—to lend a hand...or rather lend
me their extra map.

How about you? When was the last time you felt isolated? Was there anyone who stopped to lend a helping hand? A kind word? Their extra map?

JESUS MEETS A MAN BY A POOL

JOHN 5:1-9

¹After this there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. ²Now there is in Jerusalem by the Sheep Gate a pool, which is called in Hebrew Bethesda, having five porches. ³In these lay a multitude of sick people, blind, lame, paralyzed, waiting for the moving of the water. ⁴For an angel went down at a certain time into the pool and stirred up the water; then whoever stepped in first, after the stirring of the water, was made well of whatever disease he had. ⁵Now a certain man was there who had an infirmity thirty-eight years. ⁶When Jesus saw him lying there, and knew that he already had been in that condition a long time, he said to him, "Do you want to be made well?"

⁷The sick man answered, "Sir, I have no man to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up; but while I am waiting, another steps down before me."

⁸Jesus said to him, "Rise, take up your bed and walk."⁹And immediately the man was made well, took up his bed, and walked.

And that day was the Sabbath.
